

LAYDA NEGRETE, ESQ.

Berkeley, California

Layda Negrete is a lawyer with more than 10 years of experience conducting research on the criminal justice system across Mexico, her country of birth. Her research has been funded by the Hewlett Foundation, the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the World Bank. She has designed and conducted surveys for inmates in the states of the Federal District (DF), Mexico, Morelos and Oaxaca and has helped design and administer victimization surveys in Mexico City. Ms. Negrete is currently a graduate student in public policy at the University of California, Berkeley.