

The National Association of Women Judges International Judges' Scholarship

Funded by Robert M. Kaufman and The New York Community Trust and the American Society of International Law (ASIL)

NAWJ Mission Statement

The National Association of Women Judges' (NAWJ) mission is to "Promote the judicial role of protecting the rights of individuals under the rule of law through strong, committed, diverse judicial leadership, fairness and equality in the courts, and equal access to justice."

Scholarship Purpose

Consistent with NAWJ's guiding principles, the purpose of the International Judges' Scholarship is to bring together judicial officers from around the world to share knowledge and experiences to promote and ensure fairness and gender equality in the judicial systems of all nations.

Available Funding

Individuals may apply for an award of up to $1,625.00 to attend the NAWJ 32nd Annual Conference. Allowable expenses include total airfare and partial lodging costs. Funds may not be used to pay registration fees.

Eligibility

Judges from all countries other than the United States are eligible to apply for a scholarship.
